WASHINGTON HERALD BUREAU, 635 King Street.

Alexandria, Va., Jan. 7.—"We, the jury, find the prisoner, Henry Smith, guilty of murder in the first degree." The foregoing verdict was returned in the Corporation Court at 5:15 o'clock to-night in the case of Henry Smith, the negro charged with the murder of Walter F. Schultz, the Chicago artist, who was slain in this city March 6 last.

As the verdict was read Smith sat perfectly motionless and appeared indifferent to the verdict which will mean his death in the electric chair, unless he obtains executive clemency.

Smith is the man who turned State's evidence two days following his arrest on March 12 last, in which he implicated Calvin Johnson, Richard Phin, and Eugene Dersay, negroes. Their arrest followed on the night of March 14, when he made his confession. They were tried separately, and with Smith's testimony against them and their inability to establish an alibi concerning their whereabouts between 7 and 8 o'clock the night of the murder, proved their undoing, for each was convicted of murder in the first degree. They have been three times respited by Gov. Swanson and are now sentenced to be electrocuted on January 14 next. Gov. Swanson intervenes all three will go to the electric chair at Richmond next Friday.

The recently elected officers of Potomac Lodge, No. 28, Order of Odd Fellows, were installed to-night at Odd Fellows' Hall in the presence of a large gathering of members. Following the ceremonies a banquet was served. Speeches were made by Grand Master Turner and a number of members of the order.

The Bar Association of the Sixteenth judicial circuit, recently organized in this city, will hold a meeting at 11 o'clock to-morrow morning at the office of Col. Francis L. Smith, at which time the committee on constitution and by-laws will submit its report. This will probably be adopted and considerable routine business will also come up for consideration.

Announcement of the following list of examinations to be held here was given out by the local board of examiners to-day: February 2 and 3, junior topography, salary $700 to $1,200 per year; assistant assayer, custom-house service, salary $1,300 per year; February 15, topographic aid, salary from $40 to $75 per month; February 16 and 17, hydraulic engineer, salary $1,200 to $2,400 per year; assistant geologist, Geological Survey, salary $1,000 to $1,600 per year; computer, Geodetic and Coast Survey, salary $1,600 per year.

The Washington-Lesburg Turnpike Company, Leesburg, Va., has been chartered by the State corporation commission with a maximum capital stock of $25,000 and a minimum capital stock of $5,000. The objects are to build a turnpike from a point opposite Washington to Leesburg, Va., which will pass through the counties of Alexandria, Fairfax, and Loudoun. The officers are John G. Hopkins, president, Ashburn; W. C. Eustis, vice president, Outland, Va.; Westmoreland Davis, secretary, Herndon, Va.

The Rule-Wire Printing Corporation, of East Falls Church, Va., with a capital stock of $50,000 and a minimum of $25,000, has also been granted a charter. Objects are to conduct a printing business. The officers are A. D. Torreyson, president, Rosslyn, Va.; G. N. Newell, secretary, East Falls Church; F. O. Harley, Washington.

The following officers of Carpenters and Joiners' Local, No. 196, were installed last night by J. T. Harrison: Raymond Cleveland, president; Thomas H. Fones, vice president; Thomas H. Fones, recording secretary; C. A. Howard, financial secretary; Alphonso Lucas, treasurer; C. L. Toombs, sergeant-at-arms; W. H. Scott, conductor.

About eighty members were in attendance. It was announced that beginning April 1 next the union wage scale for carpenters would be $3.50 per day, an increase of 50 cents.

Funeral services over the body of Archie Fornhill, the motorman who was killed Wednesday last by falling from the cab of an electric railway train near Mount Vernon, will take place at 2:30 o'clock to-morrow afternoon from his residence, 47 North Columbus street. Services will be conducted by Rev. W. J. Morton, rector of Christ Episcopal Church, and Rev. J. R. Sevier, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church.

The week of prayer services, which commenced Monday night last, were concluded to-night with services at the First Baptist Church. A sermon was delivered by Rev. W. M. Pals, pastor of the Bethany Independent Methodist Protestant Church. The services throughout have been well attended.

The funeral of Mrs. Frances B. Griffin took place at 11 o'clock this morning from her residence, 318 Commerce street. Rev. Edgar Carpenter, rector of Grace Episcopal Church, conducted the service. Burial was in Bethel Cemetery.

Winter Harris, a negro, who was recently convicted in the United States court here of sending obscene matter through the mails and sentenced to serve five years in the Atlanta penitentiary, to which a fine of $1,000 was added, has been conveyed to that institution by Deputy Marshal J. F. Glover and Deputy Johnson.

Mayor Kercheval Re-elected. Tunnelton, W. Va., Jan. 6.—Mayor George H. Kercheval was re-elected in the municipal election held here yesterday. His opponent was former Mayor H. H. Cross. The result is a victory for the Samuel B. Montgomery following here.

Higher Pay Movement For Government Clerks Receives Indorsement.

The Washington Herald to-morrow will give expression to the views of scores of Washingtonians who believe that the government clerks should have their pay increased. They present logical and conclusive arguments to back up their belief.

Further figures will be given showing the cost of living in relation to the pay received. Join in this movement, and let Washington present a united front in this reasonable request.

This is a just cause; it deserves the support of all classes, and the fight is a winning one. Read the expressions in The Washington Herald to-morrow, and thereby strengthen your belief. Send in your suggestion. It will be appreciated and will help the cause.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR NOTES

D. A. Davis Calls Attention to Pocket Testament League.

Secretary Lehman Will Be in Washington Next Month—Miss Skinner Succeeds F. J. Walker.

At the conclusion of the recent meeting of the District Christian Endeavor Union D. A. Davis, religious work secretary of the Y. M. C. A., called attention to the Pocket Testament League, now being promoted in Washington. He received the names of thirty-one Endeavorers, who agreed to carry with them a portion of the Bible and to read as much as a chapter each day. Cards describing the plan were sent to societies represented at the meeting, and it is desired to spread the movement in every church in the city. Details of the plan can be obtained at the Y. M. C. A. or at Christian Endeavor Union headquarters.

Mr. Karl Lehman, interstate secretary of Christian Endeavor, will be in Washington February 10 to 12. He is now conducting a series of Endeavor meetings in West Virginia, and will take up a similar work in Alabama immediately after his visit to Washington. Mr. Lehman is state secretary of Christian Endeavor in both of these States, and is known everywhere as an enthusiastic and faithful worker. The story of Mr. Lehman's life, written by himself, appeared in the Christian Endeavor World of December 15, and attracted the attention of local Endeavorers.

Miss Laura Skinner has been elected president of Takoma Park Presbyterian Society, to succeed F. J. Walker.

A new junior society has been organized at the Covenant Presbyterian Church. At a recent business meeting of the Young People's Society of that church six new members were admitted to the society.

Miss Sadie Y. Lynn, junior Christian Endeavor superintendent of the First Baptist Church, entertained the junior society and her Sunday school class at her home Thursday afternoon, December 30.

The Young People's Society of Calvary Baptist Church last Monday evening installed the new officers.

Frank MacNerhan, of the extension department of the Christian Endeavor Union, was a visitor at the meeting of the Faith Chapel Society last Sunday.

To start the New Year with good resolutions for active work was the purpose of the Young People's Circle of Endeavor of the Rhode Island Avenue Methodist Protestant Church last Sunday evening at an interesting meeting conducted by President Lester Ballard. The members gave individual resolutions to be carried out through the year and the society reconsecrated itself anew with the Christian Endeavor pledge. The subject "Through this year with God" was taken as the motto for the coming year, and each and every member is working to make the New Year the best in the history of the society.

On January 21 the living picture entertainment, so successfully given by the members of the society in the early fall, will be repeated. The meeting next Sunday will be conducted by Miss Bernice North.

The missionary committee of the Shiloh Baptist Church furnished Christmas dinners and confections to nineteen families of the neighborhood.

How to Get Rid of Catarrh

A Simple Safe, Reliable Way, and it Costs Nothing to Try.

Those who suffer from catarrh know its miseries. There is no need of this suffering. You can get rid of it by a simple, safe, inexpensive, home treatment discovered by Dr. Blosser, who for over thirty-five years has been treating catarrh successfully.

His treatment is unlike any other. It is not a spray, douche, salve, cream, or inhaler, but is a more direct and thorough treatment than any of these. It cleans out the head, nose, throat, and lungs so that you can again breathe freely and sleep without that stopped-up feeling that all catarrh sufferers have. It heals the diseased mucous membranes and arrests the foul discharge, so that you will not be constantly blowing your nose and spitting, and at the same time it does not poison the system and ruin the stomach, as internal medicines do.

If you want to test this treatment without cost, send your address to Dr. Blosser, 231 Walton street, Atlanta, Ga., and he will send you by return mail enough of the medicine to satisfy you that it is all he claims for it as a remedy for catarrh, catarrhal headaches, catarrhal deafness, asthma, bronchitis, colds, and all catarrhal complications. He will also send you free an illustrated booklet. Write him immediately.

CATHOLIC CHURCH NOTES.

Another course of lectures will be inaugurated next week at the Catholic University, which will be open to the public. The lectures will take place on Thursday afternoons, beginning January 13, at 4:30 o'clock. Dr. Dougherty announces the following subjects and lecturers in the course, the dates for each one to be decided later:

"Life and works of Dante," Mr. Thomas J. Shahan, rector of the university; "Dante as a philosopher," Rev. William Turner, professor of philosophy; "The Celtic sources of the Divina Comedia," Dr. Joseph Dunn, professor of Celtic language and literature, and "Origin of religion," Very Rev. Charles F. Aiken, professor of apologetics.

The monthly business meeting of the Children of Mary of the Sacred Heart was held Monday at the Convent of the Perpetual Adoration, Rev. Edward F. Buckley, of St. Matthew's Church, spiritual director of the organization, presiding. It was decided to hold weekly meetings at the houses of the members. It was decided also to hold the next meeting at the home of Mrs. D. K. McCartney, 1711 N. street, on Thursday morning, January 13, at 11 o'clock. Reports were read from the various committees. Benediction followed.

Rev. Ignatius Fealey has called a meeting of members of the congregation for to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock to elect a committee to make arrangements for a German supper and entertainment, which will be given for the benefit of the church. The affair will be held in the National Rifle Hall, in G street.

At St. Dominic's Church the regular communion day for members of the Holy Name Society has been transferred this month from the second to the third Sunday, as the feast of the Holy Name will be celebrated on that day. A meeting of the spiritual directors and officers of the various Holy Name societies of the city will take place Monday evening at St. Dominic's Parish Hall.

The League of the Good Shepherd of St. Theresa's parish will meet to-morrow evening at 7:30 o'clock, when Father Egan will answer the questions placed in the question box since the last meeting. An entertainment and dance will be given by the young people of the parish every Thursday evening in January.

The members of the Junior sodality of St. Stephen's parish will receive communion to-morrow morning in a body at the 7 o'clock mass, and will meet at 9 o'clock in the afternoon for recitation of the office, a short instruction by the director, Rev. T. G. Smyth, and benediction of the blessed sacrament.

The members of the Holy Name Society of St. Martin's Church will receive communion at the 7 o'clock mass to-morrow, and will hold their regular monthly meeting at 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

The installation of officers of the Ladies' Catholic Benevolent Association took place Thursday evening at the headquarters, Fifth and G streets northwest.

Mrs. John Roddy was elected delegate and Miss Catherine Crowley alternate to the coming convention to be held at Milwaukee in July. The members of 1908, the local branch, presented Mrs. John Roddy with a handsome brooch of pearls and diamonds in recognition of their appreciation of her past services. A musical programme was furnished by Norman Daly, J. Preston, H. Bradley, and Miss Ethel Roddy, and a short talk on "The art of Raphael" by Mrs. Coope completed the programme.

A two weeks' mission will begin at St. Paul's Catholic Church, Fifteenth and Y streets, to-morrow morning at the high mass, which will be celebrated at 11 o'clock. The exercises of the mission will be conducted by the Redemptorist Fathers from Annapolis, with Rev. Francis M. Klauder in charge. The first week of the mission will be for the women of the parish.

Miss Mary C. Flanagan is in New York City attending a meeting of the board of directors of the Catholic Women's Benevolent Legion.

The Alumnae Association of St. Patrick's Academy will entertain this evening at a dance in new Carroll Hall, in G street, the guests of honor to be the members of the dramatic association, whose efforts were largely responsible for the success of the recent entertainment.

SERVICE FOR CRITTENTON.

Rev. Henry Couden Will Give Lesson and Prayer.

Memorial services for Charles Nelson Crittenton, founder of the Florence Crittenton Missions, will be held in the Metropolitan Methodist Episcopal Church, John Marshall place and C street northwest, January 9, at 8 o'clock.

Rev. John Reid Shannon, D. D., pastor will preside, and Rev. Henry N. Couden, D. D., chaplain of the House of Representatives, will open the service with a lesson and prayer. Addresses will be made by Representative Gardner, Rev. Randolph H. McKim, D. D., Representative J. A. Goulden, and Kate Waller Barrett, M. D., president of the National Florence Crittenton Mission.

Address Bible Students.

Charles S. Hilles, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury and one of the originators of the George Junior Republic, addressed 200 members of the boys' department of the Y. M. C. A. last night on the occasion of the weekly boys' Bible study supper.

Members of the Holy Name Society of St. Matthew's Church will receive Holy communion in a body at the 7 o'clock mass on the Feast of the Holy Name to-morrow, and the yearly meeting of the organization will be held at Rauscher's to-morrow night.

Negroes to Hold Revival.

After a week of prayer, revival meetings will begin at Shiloh Baptist Church to-morrow, Rev. Dr. J. Milton Waldron being the principal speaker.

Will Give Scripture Lessons.

Rev. Dr. Radcliffe, of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, will begin his winter series of studies in Scripture biography to-morrow evening, under the general title of "A royal failure." On the final Sunday evening of each month a musical interpretation of some sacred classic will be given.

WILL SPEAK HERE.

REV. DR. JOHN WESLEY HILL.

NEW YORK PASTOR TO SPEAK.

Rev. Dr. John Wesley Hill, noted as Campaign Orator.

Rev. Dr. John Wesley Hill, pastor of the Metropolitan Temple, of New York City, who made national campaigns for McKinley, Roosevelt, and Taft, and is one of the most noted pulpit orators in the United States, will address the men of the Y. M. C. A. at the New National Theater to-morrow afternoon. His subject will be "The shadowed soul." There will be a musical prelude at 8 o'clock by the Dixie Trio, of New York, and the Y. M. C. A. Orchestra.

CARDINAL GIBBONS COMING

Will Be Honored To-morrow by St. Patrick's Church.

Annual Celebration Will Be Observed with Fitting Masses and Musical Programmes.

Following the custom inaugurated during the pastorate of the late Rev. D. J. Stafford, St. Patrick's congregation will observe to-morrow as "Cardinal's Day."

Cardinal Gibbons will arrive in Washington this afternoon, and will be the guest of Rev. Dr. William T. Russell, the rector, until to-morrow evening. He will celebrate an early mass, and preside at the various functions in his honor. Cardinal Gibbons will assist at the solemn high mass at 11 o'clock, of which Rev. John J. Murray, of Baltimore, will be the celebrant, with priests from the Holy Cross College, Catholic University, as deacon and sub-deacon.

Rev. James A. Burns, C. S. C., superior of Holy Cross College, and Rev. W. J. Kerby, professor of sociology at the Catholic University, will act as deacon of honor to the cardinal. Rev. Edward A. Pace, professor of philosophy at the Catholic University, will deliver the sermon, and Rev. William J. Carroll will act as master of ceremonies.

A splendid programme of music has been prepared by the sanctuary choir, under R. Mills Sibby, and the senior choir, under Armand Gumprecht, the latter to be assisted by a full orchestra and Dr. Anton Gietzner, who will preside at the organ.

At the conclusion of the mass the cardinal will hold a reception in the rector's office. The Lutheran Ministers' Association will entertain at dinner, to 10 o'clock, a number of distinguished ecclesiastics and friends have been invited.
